Mmmmmmm Numb. 4055.

The Daily Courant.

Friday, October 22. 1714.

From the Paris Gazette, dated Oct. 27.

Madrid, October 8.

THE King has made Don Barnabas de Coloma, who brought the firſt News of the taking of Barcelona, Lieutenant-Collonel of a Regiment of Dragoons, and gave to the Earl of Tinmouth, eldeſt Son of the Marſhal Berwick, who brought the Particulars of it, the Order of the Golden Fleece. The 3d Inſtant the Prince came to the Palace of Medina Celi, and the two Infants to Buen Retiro. The King came alſo the 4th to the ſame Palace, to remain there ſome time. The Letters from Barcelona of the 22d paſt bring Advice, that aſſoon as the City and Fort Montjuy were taken Poſſeſſion of, the Duke of Berwick formed a Junto or Council, with the Title of Superiour Government, compoſed of the Spaniſh Miniſters who had aſſiſted him during the Siege: He alſo named by Proviſion 16 Perſons of known Fidelity, with the Title of Adminiſtrators, to take Care of the Revenues of the City, and adminiſter Juſtice. On the 18th all theſe Miniſters went to the Hall of the Town Houſe, where by the Marſhal's Order all the Officers of the City were aſſembled, and his Decree for eſtabliſhing the new Government being read before them, they quitted their Habits and Marks of Dignity and retired, the Adminiſtrators being ſubſtituted in their Places. Afterwards two of the Adminiſtrators went to the Houſe of the Deputation, where the Officers of that Body and thoſe of the Military Arm were likewiſe aſſembled, to whom they ſignified the Order of the Marſhal, that they muſt quit their Offices and give up the Marks of their Dignity to them, the Adminiſtrators, which they obeyed: And the Houſe of the Deputation is aſſigned for the new Government. The Marſhal alſo appointed Don Joſeph de Viadomar to be Viguer for adminiſtring the ordinary Juſtice. Theſe Diſpoſitions being over, the Marſhal Berwick made the ſame Day in the Afternoon his publick Entry into the City, the Garriſon lining the Streets all the Way from Port St. Andrew to the Cathedral. Five of the Adminiſtrators, clad in the rich Habits the Marſhal has aſſigned to their Office, met him at the covered Croſs and accompanied him to the Cathedral. The Artillery of the City and the Fort were thrice diſcharged, and all the Bells rung on this Occaſion. At the Gate of the Cathedral he was met by the Chapter in their Formalities, and at the Entrance of the Choire the Biſhop began the Te Deum which was ſung to Muſick. The Divine Service being over, the Marſhal returned to the Camp, and was accompanied as far as the Barrier of Port St. Anthony by the Adminiſtrators, whom he would not permit to go further. In the Evening the City was illuminated, which was repeated the two following Nights. Aſſoon as the King's Troops had taken Poſſeſſion of the Poſts of the City and Caſtle, an Order was publiſhed, commanding the Citizens, the regular Troops, the Miquelets, and others, to bring all their Arms to the Town-houſe, which was without difficulty complied with. The City and Caſtle of Cardona being alſo ſurrendred, and thoſe who were in the Field having accepted the Amneſty granted to them by the Duke of Berwick in the King's Name, the whole Principality enjoys a perfect Tranquility. Above 400 of the Garriſon of Cardona have taken Service in the King's Troops. There were found in that Caſtle 19 Pieces of Cannon, whereof 13 were Braſs, with a great Quantity of Ammunition, and above 1000 Sacks of Meal and Corn. Such good Orders were given for bringing Proviſions to Barcelona, that in three Days time all things were plenty and at a moderate Price. There was Advice that the People of the Iſland of Majorca were deliberating upon the Manner in which they ſhould ſubmit themſelves to the King, and we daily expect News that they have done it.

Genoa, Oct. 9. The Queen of Spain having been much fatigued by the Sea, reſolves to continue her Journey by Land. She came Yeſterday to the Palace of St. Peter d' Arena where ſhe lodged, and went to the Metropolitan Church where ſhe was ſhewn the Aſhes of St. John Baptiſt and the other Curioſities in that Treaſury. Her Majeſty entered the City in a Coach with the Senate's Liveries, being preceeded by thoſe of the Envoys of France and Spain, and the Duke of Turſis. The Captain of the Guards of the Palace marched with his Company before the Coach, and the Princeſs Piombino rode with the Queen. A long Train of Coaches of the principal Nobility followed her; and during the time that Princeſs tarried here ſhe received all the Honours due to her Quality, and was treated with great Magnificence. Her Majeſty departed this Day, and hath taken the Road to Savona.

Paris, Oct. 27. The King having heard that the Queen of Spain, who was to have come by Sea, has found that Paſſage very incommodious to her, and therefore is obliged to continue her Journey from Genoa by Land through France, where ſhe deſires to be incognito, has ſent the Sieur de Granges Maſter of the Ceremonies to receive the Orders of his Catholick Majeſty, concerning the Manner of her Reception in the Places through which ſhe paſſes. The King left Fontainebleau the 24th paſt, lay that Night at Petit Bourg, and arrived the 25th at Verſailles.

Therefore send for it, or send for it, 'twill cost you nothing but asking for; and is worth any one having, who either ever were, are now, or are like to be in any Venereal Circumstances whatsoever, and with their own and Posterities Welfare.

Famous Drops for Hypocondriack Melancholly: Which effectually cure on the spot, by rectifying the Stomach and Blood, cleansing them from all Impurities, and giving a new Turn to their Ferment, attenuating all viscous tenacious Humours (which make the Head heavy, clog the Spirits, confuse the Mind, and cause the deepest Melancholly, with direful Visions and Black Reflections) comforting the Brain and Nerves, compelling the hurried Thoughts and introducing bright, lively Ideas and pleasant Briskness, instead of dismal Apprehensions and dark Incumbrance of the Soul, letting the Intellectuals at Liberty to act with Courage, Serenity and Steady Chearfulness, and causing a visible diffusive Joy to reign in the Room of sneaky Doubts, Fears, &c. for which they may be truly esteem'd infallible. Price 3 s. 6 d. a Bottle, with Directions. Sold only at Mr. Bell's Bookseller at the Cross-Keys and Bible in Cornhill near the Royal-Exchange.

Consumptions of all sorts radically Cured, by a famous Elixir peculiarly invented for that Disease: Its wonderful Efficacy sufficiently explodes the erroneous Opinion, that Consumptions are incurable, since it absolutely retrieves the Patient, tho' reduc'd to a meer Skeleton; quickly takes off all the Symptoms, as Cough, Hoarseness, Wheasing, Shortness of Breath, Pain or Weight in the Breast, spitting of Blood, Soreness of the Stomach, Threat or Windpipe, also Catarrhs or Defluxions of sharp Rheume, and all Pitifical and Asthmatick Affects, Hectick Fever, &c. perfectly Cures all Internal Ulcers, restores all inward Wastings, Weakness and decay of Nature, being Balsamic and Strengthning beyond Comparison: It assuredly eradicates the first Principle or Cause of Consumptions, rectifying the Disorders of the Stomach and first Passages, creating an Appetite, procuring a good Digestion, reducing the vicious Ferment of the Blood and Juices, correcting the Acrid Salts that erode the Lungs, certainly healing Ulcers therein, and infallibly Curing all sorts of Consumptions, tho' never so bad, in a very short time to a Miracle. Price 3 s. 6 d. a Bottle, with Directions. Sold only at Mr. Osborn's Toyshop at the Rose and Crown under St. Dunstan's Church in Fleetstreet.

Excellent Drops for the King's Evil, which cer- tainly cure that Distemper in Old or Young, though never so bad, causing all Sores or Ulcers in any Part of the Body to heal speedily, and all Swellings of the Glandules or Kernels to vanish in a short time; they act specifically and without trouble, being pleasant to take, and having no sensible Operation unless a little by Urine, but by rectifying and strengthening the Stomach and Bowels, intimately mixing with the Blood and Juices, attenuating all stagnating Faculencies, correcting all sharp Salts, penetrating the utmost recesses of the Body, opening all Obstructions of the Glandules, and by enabling them to perform their true Office, they absolutely cure the Evil in all its most direful Circumstances, after most other Methods and Means have proved ineffectual, and that in so short a time, that did not very large Experience in private Practice confirm the truth of it, one could not believe it possible. To be had only at the Hatch with Blue-Spikes near the Square in Reydon-Yard in the Minories, at 3 s. 6 d. a Bottle, with Directions.

Loss of Memory or Forgetfulness certainly Cured, by a grateful Electuary peculiarly adapted for that end. It strikes at the Prime Cause (which few apprehend) of Forgetfulness, makes the Head clear and calm, the Spirits free, active, and undisturbed; corroborates and restores all the noble Faculties of the Soul, such as Thought, Judgment, Apprehension, Reason, and Memory; which last in particular it so strengthens, as to render that Faculty exceeding quick and good beyond Imagination; thereby enabling those whose Memory was before almost totally lost, to remember the Minutest Circumstance of their Affairs, &c. to a Wonder. Price 2 s. 6 d. a Pot. Sold only at Mr. Payne's at the Angel and Crown in St. Paul's Church-Yard near Cheapside, with Directions.

LONDON, Printed by S. GRAY, and Sold by R. BURLEIGH in Amen-Corner.
